LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 749, as amended, Escutia. ~~Court Facilities Architecture Revolving Fund~~ facilities: Judicial Council.

Existing law establishes the State Court Facilities Construction Fund for the construction and improvement of court facilities, as specified.

This bill would establish the Court Facilities Architecture Revolving Fund, a continuously appropriated fund, to be funded by the transfer of moneys from both state funds and nonstate sources available for the construction, alteration, repair, and improvement of trial and appellate court buildings, as authorized by the Administrative Office of the Courts, and approved by the Department of Finance, as specified. Moneys transferred or deposited in the fund would be available for expenditure by the Administrative Office of the Courts, for the purposes for which they were appropriated or made available, without regard to fiscal years.

Existing law requires the Judicial Council to adopt a rule of court on or before July 1, 2004, implementing provisions regarding writ review of a court order for the placement of a dependent child after parental rights have been terminated.

This bill would extend the deadline for the adoption of that rule of court until January 1, 2005.

Vote: ~~2/3~~—majority. Appropriation: yes. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 70379 is added to the Government
2 Code, to read:

3 70379. (a) The Court Facilities Architecture Revolving Fund
4 is hereby established in the State Treasury, and, notwithstanding
5 Section 13340, the fund is continuously appropriated, without
6 regard to fiscal years.

7 (1) With the approval of the Department of Finance, and except
8 as otherwise specified in this section, there shall be transferred to,
9 or deposited in, the fund all money appropriated, contributed, or
10 made available from any source, including sources other than state
11 appropriations, for the purposes described in paragraph (2).

12 (2) Moneys transferred to, or deposited in, the fund shall be
13 those administered by the Administrative Office of the Courts
14 under subdivision (b) of Section 70374 for the construction,
15 alteration, repair, and improvement of trial and appellate court
16 buildings, including, but not limited to, services, new 17 construction, major construction, minor construction,
18 maintenance, improvements, and equipment, and other building
19 and improvement projects.

20 (3) In addition to the approval of the Department of Finance,
21 the transfer or deposit of moneys into the fund shall be authorized
22 by the Administrative Office of the Courts, both with regard to 23 funds appropriated for the purposes specified in paragraph (2) or,
24 as to funds from sources other than state appropriations, subject to 25 any written agreement between the contributor or contributors of 26 funds and the Administrative Office of the Courts.

(b) Money from state sources transferred to, or deposited in, the fund for construction, services, equipment, repair, or improvement shall be an amount necessary based on the actual, known, or firm fixed price, upon approval of the Department of Finance.

Any amount available in the state appropriation that is in excess of the amount necessary based upon final actual costs of the completed contract shall be transferred immediately to the credit of the fund from which the appropriation was made.

(c) Money transferred or deposited in the fund pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be available for expenditure by the Administrative Office of the Courts for the purposes for which appropriated, contributed, or made available, without regard to fiscal years.

SEC. 2. Section 366.28 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.28. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that delays caused by appeals from court orders designating the specific placement of a dependent child after parental rights have been terminated may cause a substantial detriment to the child. The Legislature recognizes that the juvenile court intervenes in placement decisions after parental rights have been terminated only in exceptional circumstances, and this section is not intended to place additional authority or responsibility on the juvenile court.

(b) (1) After parental rights have been terminated pursuant to Section 366.26, an order by the court that a dependent child is to reside in, be retained in, or be removed from a specific placement, is not appealable at any time unless all of the following apply:

(A) A petition for extraordinary writ review was filed in a timely manner.

(B) The petition substantively addressed the specific issues to be challenged and supported that challenge by an adequate record.

(C) The petition was summarily denied or otherwise not decided on the merits.

(2) Failure to file a petition for extraordinary writ review within the period specified by rule of court, to substantively address the specific placement order that is challenged, or to support that challenge by an adequate record shall preclude subsequent review by appeal of the findings and orders made pursuant to this section.

1 (c) This section does not affect the right of a parent, a legal
2 guardian, or the child to appeal any order that is otherwise
3 appealable and that is issued at a hearing held pursuant to Section
4 366.26.

5 (d) The Judicial Council shall adopt a rule of court on or before
6 ~~July 1, 2004~~ January 1, 2005, to implement this section. This
7 section shall become operative after the rule of court is adopted.
